

Legal Regulation & Education: Doing the Right Thing?

29th Annual BILETA Conference Programme
14th April 2014
15.00 Guided tour of Exhibits at SCVA – departs from Broadview Lodge. Will return in time for AGM.
17.00 Tea & Coffee Main Hall
17.30 – 18.30 AGM – Library (Room 0.12)
19.30 Post AGM Dinner – SCVA

Legal Regulation & Education: Doing the Right Thing?

15 th April 2014
Registration, 08.30-08.50
Welcome, 08.50-09.10, Library, (Prof Peter Kunzlik)
	Library (Room 0.12)	Room (1.07)	Room 1.13
Parallel Session 1 09.15 - 10.50	Intellectual Property 1 Chair: Abbe Brown	Freedom of Expression & Defamation Chair: Gavin Sutter	Data Protection & Privacy 1 Chair: Subhajit Basu
	Building the relational contract for digital scholarship: how should a three-century old copyright law respond to the development of digital humanities?	Defamation on the Internet in Hong Kong: The Position Thus Far	Share and share alike? Trust, anonymisation and data protection
	Copyright and disability – beyond DRM	Kill One Man, Terrorize a Thousand?-Comments on Chinese Rumor Crackdown in Cyberspace	Orwell +30: 2014 as Orwell's 1984
	Copyright, Risk and Cultural Heritage	The views express represent mine alone	Let's get personal (data) - From Durant to Edem: clarifying the concept of personal data
	Free database licensing in Public Sector	Regulating for responsibility	Towards universal norms for smart devices, but how to enforce these when "there" can be everywhere
Tea & Coffee, 10.45-11.15
	Library (Room 0.12)	Room (1.07)	Room 1.13
Parallel Session 2 11.15 - 12.50	IP: Copyright Infringement Chair: James Griffin	Crime Chair: Martin Jones	Technology, privacy regulation Chair Paul Bernal
	"Too much of a right thing? Innovation, energy and conflict"	The fourth Anti-Money Laundering Directive	Privacy in Public: "Google Glass" and "Creepshots"
	Cross-border infringement of intellectual property rights	Illegal access to information systems and the Directive 2013/40/EU: a step backwards on the adequate protection of rights	Bridging the gap between law and technology design: the challenges of ubiquitous computing
	Streaming of Porn Movies, The RedTube.com – Case:	Criminalisation of Rape porn: Tinkering with the law	The Worlds' Fair 2014: Internet of Things, Internet

	Shame on Whom?		of Rights?"
	Copyright Infringement and Internet Perspectives	Combatting Cybercrime through 'Hacking' (Back): Cure or Curse?	Virtual words – a legal post-mortem account
Lunch, 12.50-13.55
Keynote 1, Mr Eric King, Privacy International 14.00-15.00 (Library)
Tea & Coffee, 15.00-15.25
Parallel Session 3 15.30 - 17.30	Library (Room 0.12)	Room (1.07)	Room 1.13
	Copyright Chair: Dinusha Mendis	Online dispute resolution Chair: Martina Gillen	Conundrums Chair: Daithi Mac Sithigh
	Towards a privacy right in Copyright Enforcement online: Embracing 'Activity data' under the European Data Protection Framework	Fairness and Justice in Virtual Space – Empowering the ungovernable?	Taking Offence – Restricting domain name registration
	Who Sampled?	Online dispute resolution in the context of the EU compared to Saudi regulations	When the invisible hand becomes visible: what role should competition rules play in shaping the Internet
	The Audiovisual Media Services Directive as implemented by national regulatory authorities – testing the criteria defining audiovisual media services in a converged media environment.	The EU Regulation on ODR: Doing the 'Right Thing' for Consumers?	Doing the right thing for the Telecommunications Sector in Europe: Too little or too much?
	The current position of parody under the copyright regime: the Hong Kong perspective	Unravelling Intermediary liability	Time to neutralise the attack on Net Neutrality
	Facilitating 3D printing – the role of Open licences		Addressing the harms of sexism in music: the place for regulation and education
18.00 Drinks reception, Earlham Hall 19.00 Bus departs Earlham Hall 19.30 Delia's Restaurant & Bar

Legal Regulation & Education: Doing the Right Thing?

Conference Programme 16 th April 2014
Registration, 08.30-08.50
Keynote 2, Ms Sarah Glassmeyer 09.00-10.00 (Library)
Parallel Session 4 10.00 - 11.35	Library (Room 0.12)	Room (1.07)	Room 1.13
	Intellectual Property Chair: Steve Goulton	Legal Education Chair: Michael Bromby	Privacy/data protection Chair: Kevin Rogers
	The Hunger (for) Games	Shared space: regulation, technology and legal education in a global context	"By continuing to use this site..." - Tracking, trust and online choices
	Collection versus database – evolution or confusion in European Intellectual Property law	Online law teaching – still a step into the unfamiliar?	Forgetting across the pond: Erasure Europe and Aggregation America
	DRM and Modchips: Time for the CJEU to do the 'right' thing	After the Hype: MOOCs and Legal Education	The Digital Economy Act (DEA) 2010; Subscriber monitoring and the right to privacy under Art 8 of the ECHR
	The EU copyright code: implications for the future of copyright law	A Low-tech Solution to Teaching: the book club as an educational tool	Protecting the 'specified secret?': A new development in Japan
Tea & Coffee, 11.35-11.55
Parallel Session 5 12.00 - 13.35	Library (Room 0.12)	Room (1.07)	Room 1.13
	Intellectual Property Chair: Nick Scharf	Education Chair: Emily Laidlaw	Privacy: surveillance Chair: Mark Cole
	A game of Information: Testing the limits for protecting the Integrity of user data	Making Schools responsible for cyberbullying amongst young people: are we doing the right thing?	Who Killed Privacy?
	The application of UK Copyright Law to 3D Printing and Mass Customisation	Trying to do the right thing... e-learning and experiential learning for a changing legal world	Spies, the whistle-blower, big data and a little duck
A wrong focus on 'non-commercial' instead of 'transformative'? Lessons to be learned for European	Judge, Camera, Action! Legal education and the regulation of recording and broadcasting proceedings	Surfing in the darkness: A legal conceptualisation of the onion router

	copyright policy from the Google Books decision and opt-out procedures a la robots	in court.
	Regulation of Science and technology: a comparative study between ancient and contemporary China	Equal access to the Internet: A human rights analysis	Smart surveillance: options for legislative innovation in a post-Snowden Europe
Lunch, 13.35-14.30
Conference Ends			